and the National Commission for Scheduled Tribes had recommended reservation in Armed Forces, Judiciary, Statutory Authorities, etc. The Commission also recommended incorporation of a penal provision in the Bill against public servants failing to implement the provisions of the Bill.

(c) Department Related parliamentary Standing Committee on Personnel, Public Grievances, Law and Justice had considered these suggestions and has since submitted its recommendations. A Group of Ministers is considering the recommendations of the Committee and other suggestions received by the Government on this subject.

Cadre review of CSSS (Stenographers Service)

2602. SHRI DHARAM PAL SABHARWAL: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government had approved the cadre review proposals of CSSS on 16th June, 2005;

(b) if so, the details thereof including decision on lateral entry of CSSS to CSS;

(c) whether no definite cadre strength in senior PPS and PPS Grades of CSSS has been proposed for decision by Government;

(d) if so, the reason therefor; and

(e) by what time Gazette Notifications in respect of Government decision dated 16th June, 2005 would be issued?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) and (b) The Government has approved several proposals in connection with the restructuring of Central Secretariat Stenographers' Service (CSSS). Important decision taken, including decision on lateral entry of CSSS to CSS are listed in the Statement-I laid on the Table of the House. (See below)

(c) and (d) Consequent upon the Government decisions, the cadre strength of Senior PPS and PPS of CSSS have been fixed at 68 and 130 respectively. To maintain parity in the total number of posts of Senior PPS and PPS of CSSS with that of the number of posts of Secretary/Addl. Secretary level Officers (who are provided secretarial/stenographic assistance by the members of CSSS) the Government has also decided to appropriately adjust the total number of posts of PPS through upgradation/down gradation of posts of PS/PPS.

(e) Gazette Notifications in respect of the Government decisions for amendment to the Statutory Rules would require inter-departmental consultations and procedural/administrative exercises, which is a time consuming process. However, the decisions, for operationalization of which orders have been issued, are listed in Statement-II laid on the Table of the House.
